The Women's Forum for the Economy and Society to Hold First U.S. Event, in Partnership with Vital Voices, to Focus on Climate, Peace & Health Advocacy

First American event will convene leaders and specialists in these areas of critical consequence to drive action towards solutions

WASHINGTON, D.C., March 27, 2023 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- On Wednesday, March 29, the Women's Forum for the Economy and Society (a Publicis Groupe company), the leading international network transforming the power of women's voices and perspectives into forward-thinking economic and policy initiatives for societal change, will host its first event in the United States, after nearly 20 years of impactful global events.

Together with Vital Voices Global Partnership, the leading global "venture catalysts" investing in and supporting those with bold visions for change, the first Women's Forum U.S.A. will be held under the theme of "Time to Connect" and will concentrate on the following pillars: Peace, Climate and Health. Over 200 leaders and personalities will convene at Vital Voices Global Headquarters for Women's Leadership in Washington, D.C. for a day promoting the work of women who are driving sustainable progress. Confirmed speakers include:

- Nazanin Boniadi, Actress & Activist
- Diane von Fürstenberg, Founder & Chairwoman, DVF
- Anne-Marie Slaughter, CEO, New America
- Yusra Mardini, UNHCR Goodwill Ambassador, Syrian refugee, subject of the Netflix documentary, The Swimmers
- Eric Holder Jr., 82nd United States Attorney General, Covington & Burling LLP
- Angelina Spicer, Comedian, Activist, The Postpartum Rebirth
- Deborah Birx, Senior Fellow, George W. Bush Institute, Former White House Coronavirus Response coordinator and U.S. Global AIDS coordinator

"I am delighted to be reunited with Alyse Nelson, Rising Talent 2009 who has been leading Vital Voices for the past 25 years in identifying leaders who have a bold vision for change and with whom we share so many values and battles," said Anne-Gabrielle Heilbronner, President of the Women's Forum. "The Women's Forum and Vital Voices are both organizations that aim to empower women and promote gender equality globally. We focus on leadership development for women, and we are here to recognize the importance of women's economic participation and the need for greater representation of women in decision-making positions; we cannot wait to hold our first-ever Women's Forum in the United States, where we have 20 percent of our community. Thanks to the support of our partners and the group over the past 18 years, the importance of the role of women in society has evolved significantly."

Past Women's Forum events have produced different reports, calls to action and recommendations addressed to G7 and G20 leaders. Former participants in global Women's Forum events include luminaries as diverse as Alexis McGill Johnson, President of Planned Parenthood, UN Human Rights Commissioner Michelle Bachelet, Mary Robinson, former President of Ireland, Halima Jacob, President of Singapore, Academy Award winner Michelle Yeoh, Secretary Hillary Clinton, Amanda Gorman, Salma Hayek, Marina Ovsyannikova, Christine Lagarde, President of the European Central Bank, Antonio Guterres, Secretary-General of the United Nations, Ursula von der Leyen, President of the European Commission, Maurice Lévy, Chairman of the Supervisory Board of Publicis Groupe.

"We are proud to partner with the Women's Forum and host their Women's Forum USA at our global headquarters in Washington, DC. The 'Time to Connect' is now and the need to amplify women's voices in leadership positions has never been greater," said Alyse Nelson, President &

CEO of Vital Voices. “Over our 25-year history we’ve seen and research now shows that women lead differently. The solutions we seek in climate, health and peace will require collaboration, communication, and community.”

Women's Forum à Washington : les femmes au coeur de l'action

Après le Women's Forum global meeting de Paris, le Women's Forum USA se tient à Washington D.C ce mercredi, en partenariat avec Vital Voices. C'est au coeur de la capitale américaine que les échanges se tiendront sur le climat, la santé ou encore la paix. The Women's Voices est partenaire de l'événement pour vous faire vivre les débats.

Fondée en 1997 par Hilary Clinton, Vital Voices Global Partnership est une organisation non gouvernementale américaine, qui met les femmes au coeur du progrès dans les communautés. Plus de 20 000 personnes font partie du réseau Vital Voices dans 184 pays à travers le monde. « La nécessité d'amplifier la voix des femmes aux postes de direction n'a jamais été aussi grande », affirme Alyse Nelson, Présidente-directrice générale de Vital Voices. « Au cours de nos 25 années d'existence, nous avons constaté que les femmes dirigent différemment, et les études le prouvent aujourd'hui. Nous sommes fiers de nous associer au Women's Forum et d'accueillir le Women's Forum USA à notre siège mondial de Washington, D.C. »

Cette édition, dédiée la connexion entre les acteurs qui peuvent faire bouger les choses, a pour devise "Time to Connect" (il est temps de se connecter). 200 leaders et personnalités « plancheront » toute une journée pour échanger, mettre en commun points de vue et expériences. Seront présents des figures emblématiques comme: la créatrice de mode Diane Von Fürstenberg, l'actrice britanico-iranienne Nazanin Boniadi, porte-parole d'Amnesty international US, Vanessa Nakate, militante ougandaise pour le climat, la nageuse syrienne Yusra Mardini, plus jeune ambassadrice de bonne volonté des Nations Unies, sujet du documentaire the swimmers sur Netflix, Eric Holder, 82 ème procureur général des États-Unis ou encore Deborah Birk, coordonatrice américaine coronavirus ...

Santé, climat et paix

Alors que les femmes sont aujourd'hui au coeur de majeurs conflits à travers le monde, notamment en Iran et en Ukraine, analyser l'égalité des sexes à travers le pilier de la paix semble indispensable. La présidente du Women's Forum, Anne-Gabrielle Heilbronner sera sur place. elle avait expliqué ce choix lors du Women's Forum de Paris, à l'annonce du Women's Forum USA : "Nous organisons le forum en plein contexte de guerre de post-pandémie... Il est donc naturel que 3 grands axes d'action soient mis à l'honneur : la paix, la santé et le climat." La santé et le climat sont des thématiques majeures explorées au Women's Forum.

Parmi les tables-rondes à écouter : « La diplomatie féministe – Approche féminine de la paix », "Au-delà de l'engagement – des objectifs concrets pour une action d'entreprise durable", table animée par Cynthia Illouz, fondatrice de The Women's Voices, ou encore « Briser le cycle des violences faites aux femmes ».

Le Women's Forum, une filiale de Publicis Groupe, est un évènement international qui s'est déjà tenu à Toronto, à Berlin, à Milan, Singapour ou encore à Mexico. Le Women's Forum est accessible physiquement ou virtuellement.
