

MUST SKI . . . near Tignes

POWDER TO THE PEOPLE

WHICH resort has the best snow? Skiers looking to book a getaway this year should look to Tignes in France.

It has stacks of the white stuff right now, says Iglu Ski, and trippers can enjoy seven nights' half-board at 3★ Hotel Tignes 2100 from £1,078pp, including flights from Newcastle on March 17 and transfers.

Or, for budget-friendly trips, Arinsal in Andorra also has great snow and is well geared up for beginners. Enjoy a week at 3★ Hotel St Gothard from £446pp, based on two people sharing and including flights from Heathrow on March 19.

Other deals include seven nights' B&B at 2★ Hotel Bernerhof in Switzerland, where there is also good snow, from £589pp including flights from Gatwick on March 11 as well as seven nights' self-catering at the 4★ Chalet Kapall from £1,089pp, including flights from Gatwick on February 4.

For more holiday details, see igluski.com.

